

VOCABULARY

Unit 1:

- Personality adjectives
- Collocations

VOCABULARY

Personality adjectives

1. ★☆☆ Circle the correct answers.

0 An active person A loves theatre.
1 A brave person A takes risks when it's necessary.
2 A creative person A often makes mistakes.
3 A charming person A is very good-looking.
4 A cheerful person A often feels sad.
5 A laid-back person A is very relaxed.
6 A confident person A doesn't work hard.
7 A positive person A sees the good in everything.
8 A talented person A has got a lot of money.

2. ★☆☆ Read the text. Complete the adjectives. The first and last letters are given.

My ideal friend is very 'active' - that's important because I love sport and I want her to play basketball in my team. She's 'c...' and knows how to have fun, so she's a good person to hang out with. I need a friend who's really 'c...' and a good at art, because I'm not and she could help me and give me some ideas.

Maybe it would be good if she was 'c...' too - people sometimes say I'm too 'c...' and don't laugh much. I'd like her to be 'p...' as well - I don't like it when people only see the bad side of things.

3. ★☆☆ Write one or two sentences about people you know (friends or family). Use the adjectives in Exercises 1 and 2.

Collocations

4. ★☆☆ Complete the sentences with the correct form of the verbs in the list. Use each verb twice.

Making music

1 ☆☆☆ Complete the text with the words in the list.

started a band | wrote / songs and lyrics
recorded / single | download | played gigs
entered the charts | released | went on / tour

When Mick Jagger 'started a band' called The Rolling Stones in 1962 with a few friends, he had no idea how successful they would become. The Stones 'entered the charts' their first 'single' 'Come On, a song by the singer Chuck Berry, and 'released' it on 7 June, 1963. They never performed it when they 'went on tour' because it wasn't their 'single'. But their fans found out about the record, and so many people bought it that it went to number 1 in the UK and went to number 21. Of course, in those days, fans had to go to record shops; they couldn't just 'download' music from the internet! Mick Jagger and Keith Richards 'wrote songs and lyrics' a lot of 'songs and lyrics'. In 1964, The Rolling Stones 'recorded a single' their first 'single' of the US. When they came back, they had their first number one hit in the UK, It's All Over Now.

VOCABULARY

Jobs

1 ★☆☆ Complete the text with the words in the list.

career | challenging | earn | long | notice
on-the-job | paid | pay | promoted | successful

My job is the worst job in the world. I work really long hours – 8 am to 8 pm every day. The pay is terrible and I only just earn enough money to live on. I don't get paid holidays and I lose money if I need to take time off.

When I started, they promised me notice. Well, they showed me how to make a cup of tea and that was it! I've been here ten years and I still haven't been promoted. I'm doing the same job I did when I started. And it isn't really the most challenging job I mean, I think I could probably do it in my sleep.

On my first day here I was so excited. I really thought this was the start of my career. I thought I'd soon be a successful businessman earning loads of money. Well, I was wrong. I know what you're thinking. Why don't I give in my notice? I can't – the boss is my dad!
